

SPRING TERM 2019

Become a Little Star Writer and discover just how much FUN writing can be. Play games, win prizes, receive certificates, meet authors, enter competitions, take part in group work, learn new writing rules, try your hand at writing stories, poetry, song lyrics, scripts, etc, get a copy of your work in a LSW folder, and get published in the LSW book! The Spring term of LSW workshops is bursting with games, activities, writing challenges and group work to inspire students and help them hone their writing style. We'll be using inspiration from the latest bestselling books, 'The Lost Magician' by Piers Torday, 'The Train To Impossible Places' by P.G. Bell, 'Into The Jungle' by Katherine Rundell, and 'Pages & Co' by Anna James. Little Star Writers will be introduced to new authors and books, try new writing styles and have so much fun, they'll barely realise they're learning. If your child would like to become a Little Star Writer and discover just how much fun writing can be, visit our website to book their space. Please note, places are very limited and are reserved on a first-come, first-served basis. Spaces at LSW can sell out as within a matter of hours so please be quick if you'd like to reserve your child's space at www.littlestarwriting.com.
